Enter prize drawings each time
you reach a carnivore skull!

A large circular graphic divided into segments, resembling a clock face or a wheel. The segments are arranged in a circular pattern. Some segments contain illustrations of dinosaur skulls, while others are empty. The skulls are simple line drawings of a dinosaur's head with teeth.

UNEARTH A STORY™

Adult Summer Reading Program, June 1-July 17, 2026, Sponsored by the Friends of the Library

Move along the game board by visiting the library, borrowing items physically or digitally, finishing a book, exploring paleontology and archaeology, and more! Write what you did in a square to complete that square and move along the game board.

Examples of activities to write in your squares:

- visited the library on [date]
- borrowed a TV show on hoopla or audiobook on Libby
- borrowed a book from the library
- Read a book about dinosaurs, ice age life, or other prehistoric eras
- Visited a museum
- Took a hike and noticed the rocks along the way
- Watched a video or listened to a podcast about paleontology, archaeology, or geology
- Tried a mini-course on GetSetUp (see library website Free Online Tech Classes page)
- Finished [book title] by [author]
- Draw/paint/color a picture of ancient people, ancient life, or geology/rocks/crystals
- Took photos of plants or animals (bonus: post to the iNaturalist app to document biodiversity)
- Wrote about ancient people, ancient life, or planetary geology
- Read a book about the Mimbres or other ancient peoples

Each time you complete three squares (indicated by a dino skull), you can enter weekly prize drawings. Bring your game board to the library information desk or email a picture of your board to programs@silvercitypubliclibrary.org to enter.

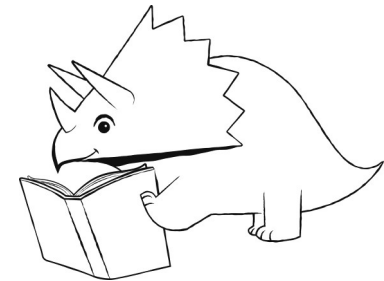

You can also enter by completing book rating slips, included in this packet.

To enter end-of-summer grand prize drawings submit the following, at minimum, by end of business on July 17:

- 1 game board section and 1 book rating slip OR
- 2 game board sections OR
- 2 book rating slips
